

Ask a question about your data

Sales Performance Executive Dashboard

This dashboard analyzes the sales performance super store across regions and product categories. It tracks key KPIs including Total sales, Total profit and Profit Margin, as well as sales trends over time. The executive view highlights top-performing products and regions, providing actionable insights for management decisions.

